Philad^a June 12th 1794

Sir

I enclose to y^r Lane Letters Pamphlets & Gazettes which, I doubt not, you will forward, according to their superscriptions, with care & dispatch: The opportunity being good to your Island, I have sent Duplicates of some which you will please to send on by a second Chance.

I have not written a Line to you since the 29th & 30th of Jan^y 1794 except to cover Gazettes via Boston & Baltimore as a Return to your attentions of that kind. It is proper therefore that I now inform you of the safe arrival of y^r various

Dispatches Orig.^l Dupli^c or Tripli^c of Feb.^y 2

I hope the commercial Com^{tee} have not been so silent, as your Business was almost altogether in their Line. I have, I know, been under some Embarrassments as to making Remittances duly, arising partly from an Embargo and partly from other Causes, but I look for a speedy great Change in our Affairs both as to Money and the Freedom of Navigation.

Most assured of my Regard for you, and expect to hear shortly from me in a more minute Way respecting your personal

Concerns.

I am

Sir

Your Friend
and Humble Servant

James Lovell

P.S.

Please to send my Compliments to ^{my} Sir & Gouverneur with the Pamphlets marked for them. I thought the Vessel was bound to St. Augustine when I put up the Papers to their Care, as you will perceive by the superscriptions. I have recd. their Fav^r of Apr. 1st.
